

WORSHIP

ENCOUNTERING Angels

The Bible is clear that angels are present all around us and yet we really seem to know very little about these agents of heaven and their role in the world and our lives. This series will separate fact from fiction as we understand what angels really are and how God might be using them to affect our lives.

If you would like your child to join the family of God in this practice for the first time, please pick up a You're Invited book from the children's ministry desk and work through this 5 night devotional with your child to help deepen their understanding of what it means to participate in this sacrament. kathyb@orchardhill.org
