GRATITUDE

Dear Orchard Hill Family,
We cannot thank you enough for the food, gifts, calls, visits, and prayers during our fall/winter of discontent. I felt every single prayer lifted on my behalf, and am here today because of them. "They" believe I have an autoimmune disease. Let's pray it doesn't come back. Connor's ankle surgery went well, and he should be walking unaided very soon. Finally, your kindness during Mike's dad's passing was so felt and appreciated. We rejoice in that we will see him again! Your love is awe-inspiring!

- Mike, Leigh, Connor and Austin Van Putten

We want to thank you for your cards, calls, support, and prayers during this difficult time. Also for the special friendship of Bev Buikema and Karen Porter.

- The Jebb family
